ANNOUNCEMENTS

Sale of Linden Parkway Property.
George D. Deane, Jr., has sold his property, No. 10, Linden Parkway, consisting of a fine seven room cottage and newly built garage, to Louis Brand of Pittsburgh. Mr. Brand will make his home here in the future. The Deane family will move their family to Worcester, Mass., where he will have charge of a large woolen industry. The sale was made through the agency of Thomas H. Beckley.

BREED THEATRE.

As Boston Blackie, in the fourth comedy Metro production "Boston Blackie's Little Pal," Fred Lytle is seen in the part of an up-to-date crook of the scholar and gentleman variety. It is a comedy in which Mr. Lytle has full scope for his great versatility. This play will be the attraction at the Breed theatre today and for today evening. It is a comedy of the most refined and distinctive. Boston Blackie is nothing if not efficient in his profession and his tools are the most advanced and scientific kind. To be able to detect the faintest noise made by the tumblers behind the steel door he uses the sensitive audition, an instrument so delicate that the faintest sound cannot pass unrecorded. Other pictures on the bill include "Ladies First," a two part Mack Sennett comedy, with Chester Conklin and Mary Thurnham, and the Burton Holmes Travel series.

Bob Ott in "Alas, Poor Yorick"

When you see this show you will laugh yourself sick. There isn't a breathing soul in this city who could see it without laughing. It is in fact a mighty ingenious musical comedy, a comedy with farcical situation, and lots of pretty girls and musical tunes. The production is a masterpiece of the stage, and the scenic splendor form a kaleidoscope of awe-inspiring realism culminating in complications of heart-breaking laughter. It is the season's musical comedy hit.

Bob Ott wants to thank the fifty million people who have witnessed his performance and helped his phenomenal success possible. His policy in the past has been to please you, he will continue to do so, and he hopes you will continue your patronage.

There is a surprise in store for admirers of Henry B. Walthall, the sterling, Puritan star, when they view his second Puritan play, "Humdrum Brown," which will show at the Auditorium theatre for today evening. Mr. Walthall, in "Humdrum Brown," plays a new field—the field of rustic expression. In one of the strongest scenes at the climax of the play, he participates in a racing battle of wits with Howard Crumpton, who plays the role of "Carles Tanner," a gentleman who has never appeared in a real fight on the screen, and his struggle in "Humdrum Brown" is unusual for this actor who has been a more dainty nature.

ROCKVILLE

Howard Woodman, who was operated on for a hernia, was discharged from the Rhode Island hospital, Providence, has returned to his home here, greatly improved in health.

Dr. T. E. Robinson of Westerly was here Monday.

Dr. Alva Randall has returned to his school duties at East Greenwich, where he will continue his studies.

Mrs. William Taylor, who has been ill with influenza is reported to be improving.

Mrs. Mary Sandford of Wickford, at the home of Mrs. Elsie Keyes, has been seriously ill for several weeks is thought to be gaining a little.

Hartford—Dr. Dwight Wallace Tracy of No. 382 Western avenue has been appointed by the surgeon-general surgeon of the army training corps at Trinity college.

Hartford—The annual meeting of the Hartford branch, Connecticut Indian association, was held Wednesday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Henry E. Taintor, No. 112 Woodland street.

Bridgeport—Hungry after perpetrating four burglaries on Bridgeport's East Side, burglars sat down to a genuine feed at the home of Attorney William B. Boardman, where they cleaned up the eatables in the house before leaving.

Norwalk—The sum of $20,000 is the amount involved in the alleged irregularities of Chester S. Selleck of Norwalk, whose arrest and release have been guaranteed with much secrecy. The accused was cashier of the Fairfield County National bank.

WEDDING.

Low—Seward.
Putnam, Oct. 30.—At the home of the bride's parents on Seward street, Wednesday evening, Miss Katherine Seward, daughter of former city clerk F. W. Seward and Mrs. Seward, and Nelson E. Low, who is in service at Camp Devens, were united in marriage by Rev. C. J. Harrison, an army chaplain stationed at Camp Devens and formerly pastor of St. Philip's church, this city. The attending couple was Miss Mary Miller and David Low, brother of the groom. The wedding march was played by Prof. Frederick Very of Providence. The home was decorated with flags of the allied nations. Mr. and Mrs. Low left during the evening for their wedding trip.

Inquiries for Fred Mitchell.
Danbury, Oct. 30.—Inquiries from New York by wire Wednesday were relative to Fred Mitchell, 29, who collapsed on the street in that city and is believed to be suffering from shell shock. Papers found on his person show that he has been in the ground service of the Royal Flying Corps for nearly two years and gave his address as Danbury, Conn. Mitchell is not known in Danbury. It was thought possible he may have enlisted in the British service from one of the villages in this vicinity. He is said to have arrived in the port of New York on a transport that came in Tuesday from England.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD-OR-CATARH

Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages

What! What! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. More hawking, snuffling, mucous discharge, headache, dizziness—no struggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is one.

Don't stay stuffed up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head; soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

The British American war relief fund is steadily increasing and is rapidly nearing the $200,000 mark. The result of the collection for the past week follows: Amount previously acknowledged, $2,470.45; collection at Franklin, Oct. 26, $11.85; Jewett City collection, $5; total, $2,487.30. A check of $50 has been sent to the national headquarters in New York by Treasurer Zerk and will purchase comforts for wounded Tommies.

Plainfield High school choir will be singing practice tomorrow at 3:30 in the main room of the school.

Claire Dawley has resumed work at the Martin-Rockwell plant in Norwich after being laid up at his home on Plainfield street for a short time with symptoms of influenza.

Miss Cora Adams has received a letter from Fred Marriott, in active service with the American expeditionary forces, stating that he had been wounded in one of his trips over the front. During his service in France Mr. Marriott went over the top on six occasions. In his letter he made light of his wound, saying that he received a scratch on his last trip over the top—the loss of the top of his thumb. Fred Marriott is a member of the family whose patriotism aroused much comment at the outbreak of hostilities between the United States and Germany. His father enlisted in the Canadian army and went to France with the second contingent from that country. For three years he was on the firing line, when he returned to this country as an instructor. He has a brother, Albert, who enlisted in the U. S. navy before the U. S. entered the war and is now with the U. S. naval forces in the European war zone. Another brother, Theodore, is fighting with the Canadian army.

Henry Dodge, formerly a fireman on the N. Y. N. H. & H. R. R. for the past three years, was employed as a first class engineer in the Plainfield and Danbury electric light plant in Plainfield.

Charles Dawley attended a party in Packville Tuesday evening. Joseph Davon and Walter Dougherty accompanied him.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bernier of Lawton Heights have returned after several months' vacation at the home of relatives in Canada. Mrs. Bernier was forced to retire to a different climate on account of her health; also attended the funeral of her mother, who resided in Cape St. Agnes, Canada.
